Songkran religious ceremony and parade

Those seeking a more traditional Songkran celebration are invited to attend the relic (Sarira) worshipping ceremony and parade 2015 in Pattaya on Monday, April 13.

The event is being jointly organized by Pattaya City Hall, the Sanctuary of Truth, government authorities and the private sector. Residents and tourists can participate in a water sprinkling ceremony to bring good health, luck and fortune and also follow the parade starting at 7:00 from the Sanctuary of Truth to Pattaya School 8, Pattaya School 7 and the Pattaya Floating Market.

The parade will head back to the Sanctuary of Truth at 17:00.

The event marks the first day of Songkran, or the Thai New Year.

ワン・ライ・バンセーン・フェスティバル

スポーツイベント、もち米大食いコンテスト、牡蠣の殻剥き競争、OTOP商品販売、音楽演奏など

開催日：2015年4月16日～17日

場所：バンセーンビーチ

Wan Lai Bangsaen Festival

Celebrate the Thai New Year by creating Buddha sand sculptures on Bangsaen beach from April 16-17, 2015.

The sand building is an ancient tradition still practiced to this day and supported by local businesses and government agencies alike to help preserve cultural activities within the community.

Along with the sand formations, there will also be sports events including tug-of-war, beach boxing and sepak takraw, plus fun activities such as a sticky rice eating contest and an oyster stripping competition.

Food, drink and OTOP products will also be widely available and musical entertainment will be provided by some of the most popular bands in Thailand.

Wan Lai Pattaya Festival

TAT Pattaya would like to wish everyone a Happy Thai New Year and invite you to attend the Wan Lai Festival in Pattaya on April 19 and the Traditional Rice Piling (Kong Khao Fair) 2015 on April 20 in Naklua. Along with the refreshing and fun splashing of water, additional attractions include mini concerts from popular music artists and shop booths lined alongside Beach Road from the Dusit Thani resort to Walking Street.

Tourists wishing to attend the events can park their vehicles in designated areas arranged by Pattaya City Hall, including Bali Hai Pier, Pattaya School 8 and Wat Chai Mongkol.

TAT would like to kindly ask people to celebrate the water splashing with caution and moderation as a respect to Thai tradition and also to not use dangerous powder.
